Grayling Gives Snow to Jackson

Crawford County residents who have had to plow, blow and shovel snow this winter and are ready to cry "enough!" may be heartened to know that on Monday, January 29, the county got rid of about 60,000 pounds of the white fluffy stuff.

It seems that Jackson County has no snow and needed some uncontaminated snow for a snow sculpture. Knowing that airports cannot use salt on their runways, the Jackson Chamber of Commerce contacted Dave Frederick, executive director of the Crawford County Transit Authority and airport manager, hoping that Grayling would have a little snow to spare and guess what? We did.

Jerry Millikin said Millikins loaded between 120 and 140 yards of snow on three Jackson County semi-trucks late Monday morning and the trucks and snow headed south.

Coffron Wins Miss Grayling Title

Annamarie Coffron was selected Miss Grayling 1990, in front of a "standing room only" audience at the Joseph Stripe Auditorium last Saturday, January 27.

The new queen was crowned by Dawn Elekonich, Miss Grayling 1989. A reception for the new queen and her court was held in the high school lobby following the pageant. It was hosted by Miss Elekonich and her mother, Pat.

Annamarie, 20, is the daughter of Dorothea A. Coffron. She is a sophomore at Ferris State University and is working on a dual degree in accounting and finance.

Paula Jean Nunn, was first runner-up in the contest and was also selected by her peers as Miss Congeniality. Paula is a senior at Grayling High School and is the daughter of Melvin (Pat) and Nancy Nunn.

Anne F. Petrosky took the second runner-up position. Anne is also a senior at Grayling High School and is the daughter of Luke and Pauline Petrosky.

Miss Grayling and her court will make their first official appearance on Thursday, February 1, at the Winter Carnival Kick-off Dinner at the Knights of Columbus Hall. Contest scholarships and prizes will be awarded at this dinner. Tickets are available at the Chamber of Commerce office.

Ambitious Manistee River Plan Making Headway On Improvements

Despite a mid-year start and limited resources the Upper Manistee River Restoration Committee (UMRRC) was able to accomplish a surprising amount of work in 1989.

The 13-member committee adopted its partnership agreement on May 17 and launched a 10-year effort to recover the Manistee River's lost fishery and recreational potential.

The partnership agreement stipulated that the Huron Pines Resource Conservation and Development Area Council would administer the UMRRC, account for its finances and file periodic reports on the committee's progress.

As the committee began its restoration program, its primary focus was on erosion control to repair the river's degraded fish habitat. This work is proceeding in two phases; inventory and treatment. The inventory phase is almost complete and significant progress was made on the treatment phase.

Even though the UMRRC received less than 20 percent of the funds pledged to the organization from its members, $16,644 in cash or in-kind contributions, the following accomplishments were listed in its 1989 annual report:

--Extended the inventory of mainstream streambank erosion sites from highway M-66 in Kalkaska County downstream to Lucas Road in Missaukee County, adding 47 to the 68 sites identified in 1988.

--Completed the inventory of streambank erosion on Portage Creek and identified and classified 11 sites.

--Began the inventory of streambank erosion on the Manistee River's North Branch, Goose Creek and Big Cannon Creek, noting nine sites to date.

--Commenced work of erosion control at nine of the 135 inventoried sites. These sites are: South side of County Road 612 where it crosses the Upper Manistee River, the north edge of Goose Creek Trail Campground, at an unmarked, lightly used access on state land opposite the Upper Manistee River Campground, two sites on private land off Riverview Road and four sites on Portage Creek. One site is at the crossing of Camp Grayling's new military road and three sites are at unmarked military bivouac and public camping areas.

Local Support Not Enough In KCC Election

Residents of the Kirtland Community College District turned down the college's 1.5 mills request for additional operational millage by 615 votes last Tuesday, January 23. The final count was 2845 no votes to 2230 yes.

Crawford County residents passed the millage request again, 451 yes to 351 no. The following is a breakdown of the Crawford-AuSable School District precincts: precinct #1 (City of Grayling and Grayling Township) 372 yes to 249 no, precinct #2 (Frederic) 48 yes to 42 no, and precinct #3 (Lovells) 28 yes to 60 no.

Voters have refused Kirtland's requests for increased millage four times; in 1985, 1987, 1989 and 1990.

College president, Raymond Homer, said he will be officially presenting the results of last week's election to Kirtland's Board of Trustees on February 8th and said he anticipates that the board will be taking some time to analyze "what happened and what went wrong" and then study the situation before deciding how to proceed.

Homer said that because of the death of one trustee and the resignation of another, four of the seven trustee seats will be up for election in June. With this major change in the board and his resignation taking effect on June 29th, Homer said maybe the new board and new president will be able to do what they have been unable to accomplish; pass a millage increase.

Ashton Finds $500 Medallion

Monica S. Ashton found the $500 medallion Sunday tied to a dead oak tree near the intersection of Stephan Bridge Road and County Road 612.

Monica was searching in the woods southeast of the intersection when she stepped into a hole filled with deep snow. As she climbed out of it she looked up and about 20 feet away she saw the big medallion tied to the oak tree about two feet above the snow level.

It was the second time Monica has found a big medallion. She also found a $500 medallion in 1985.

Monica, with help from Matt Ashton, used the first letters of each clue to help steer toward the "Top of Stephan Bridge Rd." or where it ends at County Road 612.

Another clue concerning a jack pine hanging over the road helped show her where to enter the woods and search for a dead oak. A later clue which told hunters to divide all numbers by three wasn't needed to obtain the information the big medallion was 25 paces into the woods from the jack pine overhanging the road near the intersection.

Monica started looking for the big medallion on Monday, the first day of the hunt. But she was out of town Tuesday to Friday. On Friday night she looked at all the clues so far and was ready to start searching Saturday, on the sixth day of the Medallion Hunt.

On Saturday, she was near the intersection of Stephan Bridge Rd. and County Rd. 612 but she and Matt couldn't narrow down the area. Monica said they weren't dressed for walking around in the big snow drifts there the first time they were in the area.

On Sunday morning they went back to that intersection and also went to the intersection of Stephan Bridge Rd. and North Down River Rd.

"There were other people looking around North Down River Rd. but I had a feeling it wasn't the place," Monica said.

At one time they headed north on Stephan Bridge Rd. past the North Down River Rd. intersection and got stopped where the snow wasn't plowed.

That made Monica feel for sure it was at the other end of the road. They headed to the other intersection and noticed the jack pine hanging over Stephan Bridge Road on the east side.

Monica will receive her $500 prize Sunday afternoon at Hanson Hills during the Winter Carnival awards ceremony.

As of Tuesday morning, seven of the 15 small medallions worth $25, $30, or $50 in gift certificates from local businesses were turned in.

Opinions

Let's Talk About It

By Joe Murphy

By the time this appears in the paper our A and P store will be only a part of Grayling's history. After sixty nine years of serving the needs of our area a decision was made by someone, somewhere, that the Grayling store should be closed. I understand it came to Grayling back in 1921 located in the building where Minnie Hartly and later the Black and White were later located. Mr. Earl Dawson took over the management in 1923 and the store was later located where Dawson's is now. A new building was erected by local business men where Mac's is now located and the store was moved there. Mr. Dawson managed the store for about thirty-three years. The last move was to the present location.

I feel for the employees that served the Company long and well and are now faced with transfer or dismissal. But that's the way things are today when in a board room somewhere decisions are made that affect the lives of many people that have no say in the matter. We bid the Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company goodbye and say Welcome to Denny's I.G.A. that will soon be in full operation. Mr. Dennis Rochette, is a well respected local business man and we wish him the best of luck in the expansion of his operations.

One of the many changes I note is the scarcity of Saturday night dances now in our area. When I was young it seemed that there was a dance every Saturday night somewhere in the area. Some of the locations I recall are the Grange Hall here in Grayling, the Lovells Town Hall, Maple Forest Town Hall, plus a lot of school dances. The old Frederic Town Hall was the site of many dances back in the old days.

I always looked forward to those Frederic dances, not because I went to them at that age, but the mother lode of beer bottles I would find on Sunday morning. I would sometimes find enough to cover a month of Saturday movies after a big dance. The whole trick was to be there early, it got to the point where I was up and at it well before daylight in order to beat the competition. By the light of a kerosene lantern I managed to skim off the cream and competed with the other boys on those I missed after daylight. That two cents we got for bottles in those days was big money to us. I remember one morning I found an upper denture plate and the old boy that lost it gave me fifty cents to get it back. In those days both young and old attended those dances. Now the young are into rock music that most older folks have no desire to try to dance to. Well, times they keep a changing.

Reader Questions Road End Rules

To Whom It May Concern:

My husband and I started to come to Higgins Lake in 1935, just for week-ends. We enjoyed the lake very much. We built a cottage in the American Legion Grounds.

Then later we decided to build a house, and we bought property and built a house in 1940. When the home was finished, we retired and moved into our home at Higgins Lake in 1952.

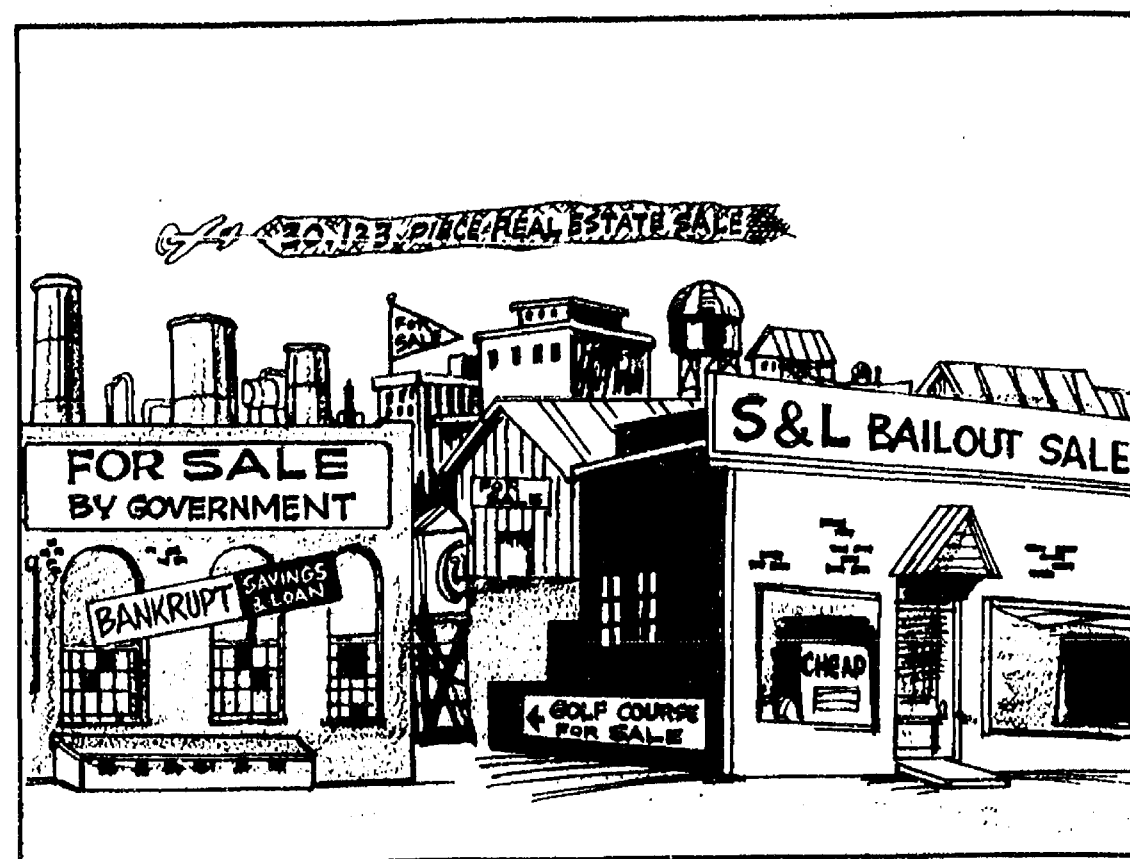

We enjoyed the lake very much, and did a lot of fishing, and in the evening it was nice to sit and watch the sunset, and the fish jump-ping in the water and the people in boats, children playing in the sand on the beach.

Now I am 83 years old, and I still enjoy going and sitting at the lake. Now it seems that I can't do that either.

It is very sad for me to know that I can't go down to the end of the road and spend a little time any more. It is a very sad place. God created this lake for EVERYONE. Please help us to use the lake like we did for so many years back.

Thank you all in advance,
Mrs. Walter Zielinski

Many Here Give 'Above and Beyond'

Dear Jon:

P.T. was right when he said we have a great community in which to live and work and we all make a great team. Yet, there are those people who should be recognized and commended for going "above and beyond" their chosen professions and regular jobs and give 110% (as they say at the sports banquets) to help make this community a better place in which to live.

We all come in contact with various and different people who fit this description as witnessed from the forum during the past few weeks. I really hesitate to mention names, but since so many have already been mentioned, I would like to add a few who, from my perspective, should be added to this list. These are people who have never been "Citizen of the Year", but certainly deserve to be. Since it would take too long to go into detail about each of them, I will just give their names.

My additions are: JOHN CHERVEN, BETTY BENNETT, D.J. BROWN, IVAN GWILT, JUDY DICKINSON, TERRY DICKINSON, PAULINE PETROSKY, STEVE SOUTHARD AND PAUL THOMPSON. Why not have a CITIZEN OF THE WEEK column and have an in-depth human interest story about some of the "GREAT Citizens"?

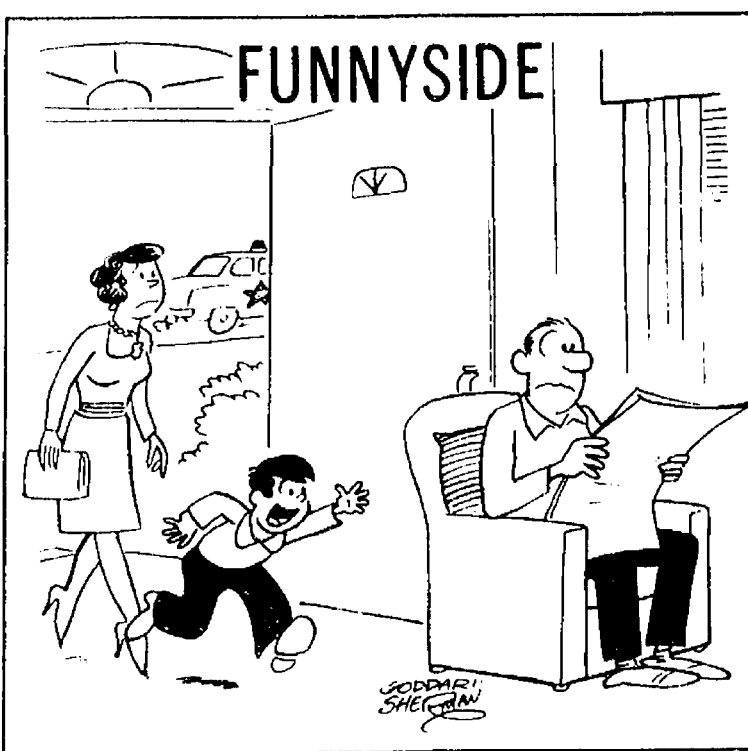

P.S. Thanks so much, Jon, for your kind words, but I'm rather embarrassed to have my name listed. Actually, whatever I do, I do because it's so much fun.

Winners, losers see it differently

By Richard Milliman

POLITICS IS FREQUENTLY like a fairy tale.

It's often like the fable about the six blind men from India who met up with an elephant. Each one had a different interpretation of what an elephant was like.

The one who felt the elephant's side thought it was like a tall, flat wall. The one who grasped its leg believed an elephant was like a sturdy tree trunk. The one who felt its tail thought it was like a rope, and so on. Each had a different interpretation of the same event.

And so it is in politics... such as in the special legislative election in Warren where Republican D. Roman Kulchitsky was elected.

The seat became vacant when the late Dennis Dutko resigned after being sentenced to the Ingham County Jail for repeated drunken driving escapades. Mr. Dutko, a Democrat, had held the seat for 15 years. Party leaders on both sides believed it was a firm Democratic stronghold.

Ah, but a young Republican named Roman Kulchitsky won in the special election, early in January, defeating Democrat Chuck Busse, a member of the Warren city council. Both had survived rather lively primary races. The final Kulchitsky win was pretty solid 8,906-7,340.

REPUBLICANS SEE Mr. Kulchitsky's win as perhaps a turning point for their party's fortunes, at least in Macomb County and possibly statewide.

Democrats view the whole thing as merely a temporary glitch in their otherwise solid political fabric.

As is true in most political races, the winner saw the outcome as a personal triumph and the loser found all sorts of reasons why he lost, none of which was really his fault.

Mr. Kulchitsky is quoted as saying the people "voted for the man, not the party," adding: "The people decided I'm someone they believe and trust."

Loser Busse claimed Mr. Kulchitsky used negative tactics, exaggerated the size of a millage increase Mr. Busse as a council member voted for last year. Mr. Busse said Mr. Kulchitsky turned the race into "a referendum on City Hall," and claimed he (Busse) will do better with a longer campaign period and a larger voter turnout next time out (yes, Mr. Busse already is running again.)

MEANWHILE AMONG STATE party leaders, winners took credit and losers dodged the blame.

"The Kulchitsky campaign shows that our message is being heard loudly and clearly in all parts of Michigan," said Rep. Paul Hillegonds, Republican leader in the House who led the pro-Kulchitsky forces from the outside.

State GOP Chairman Spencer Abraham saw the win as "a good omen for Republican statewide races this coming fall."

Not so, declared House Speaker Lewis Dodak, Mr. Busse's biggest Democratic cheer leader from outside. "Busse's local voting record was really the issue," said Mr. Dodak. "I'm not sure it was a Democrat versus Republican thing."

They're probably all at least partly right... just like the blind men from India.

But it is clear that the Macomb County victory will reinvigorate Republican efforts in House races this fall. The margin is now 60 Democrats, 50 Republicans for control of the House.

Turn of six seats, or 10 percent of those held by Democrats, would give the Republicans control. It's a long shot... but Mr. Kulchitsky's win in a district which has been strongly Democratic for more than 20 years certainly hints it can be done.

Republicans certainly are going to try.

Notes from the Woods

By Nancy Lemmen

Dave woke me up from a sound sleep one night last fall. "Nancy, turn on the light. I just had a dream."

"Whaaaaaa?????" I slowly reached the bed light and flipped the switch.

"I just dreamed that a little animal was on the floor by the bed."

"Thank you for telling me your dream," I replied.

"I'm sure it has deep and meaningful Freudian significance."

"The thing is," he persisted, "The dream was so realistic, it woke me up. I'm not sure it was a dream. I think maybe there's a mouse in here. Look around the room. Do you see anything?"

My eyes made a brief, sleepy sweep across the room. Any real mouse that might have been there was now gone. "Go back to sleep, Dave," I said, and proceeded to do so myself immediately.

By morning I had forgot our little nocturnal episode. So I was slightly surprised when Dave asked me somewhat sheepishly if I thought he was crazy.

"Not usually. Sometimes, maybe. Once in a while, definitely."

"I mean because of the dream I had last night. About the mouse by the bed."

"Oh yeah. I had totally forgotten about that."

But since Dave himself opened up the subject of craziness -- heh, heh -- I naturally considered it fair game for public discussion. So for a few days, I regaled friends and relatives with what I considered amusing stories about Dave's realistic dream and his subsequent reaction to it.

However, about a week later, he came downstairs with a tennis shoe in his hand. "I want to prove to you that I'm not crazy."

"Thank you very much. I've been worried about it," I replied, without realizing to what specific behavior he was referring, but in fact wondering why he was carrying one tennis shoe so carefully.

He took a bowl from the cupboard and poured the contents of his sneaker -- about a cup of mixed birdseed and nuts -- into it.

"Here's the proof. Obviously a mouse or something has been getting into our house."

"Unless you or one of the dogs put that seed in your shoe," I suggested.

"I saw an animal that night, Nancy. I didn't just dream it. I'm not crazy."

"Right."

A few days later, I was typing one very early morning in our upstairs den, when I heard (or rather thought I heard) Dave rummaging around outside the room.

"Dave, what are you doing up so early?" I called out. No answer.

"Dave? DAVE?"

I walked back into our bedroom, where Dave was still sleeping soundly in bed. I shook him awake. "Dave. There's a mouse in the house. I just heard him. At first I thought it was you."

"Right. Remember? That's what I told you."

For a few days we ignored the little uninvited houseguest. After all, he (or she) wasn't doing any harm -- just donating a little birdseed to the house supply (probably from our own supply outside), but not causing any problems.

However, one morning I opened a towel drawer in the bathroom to find a pile of shredded toilet paper in it. I knew I hadn't made any T.P. confetti and Dave said that he hadn't either.

It must have been the mouse. Now the little fellows (or gal) had gone too far. It was time for removal methods. But which one?

I have a friend who's a real animal lover. She live-traps mice, then takes them out in the country to let them go. Her biggest problem is finding a live trap small enough that the mouse can't slip back out once caught inside. I knew that our live trap was too big to be effective, so that was out.

I considered poison, a method I admit that I've used before. But I also feel a bit guilty picturing those poor little poisoned mice, desperately seeking water (or whatever they do) before dying an agonizing death. So I passed that up.

There is also some sort of box trap, that knocks mice inside of it and I believe then suffocates them. I hated to see a houseguest go that way too.

Anyway, I settled on these little flat squares with a sticky substance applied to their surfaces. When the mouse walks on the, he sticks. I formed this hazy image of myself carrying the stuck mouse plus contraption outside, then removing him from the glue and setting him free. That seemed effective yet humane. So I set out a trap.

Then I forgot about it and we went away for the weekend. When we returned, I drove off to retrieve the dogs from the kennel while Dave unloaded the car. When I came back he seemed subdued.

"You got the mouse while we were away."

"Whoa, now I have to let him loose."

"It's a little late. He was in pretty bad shape when I found him" (Actually Dave told me the details but I will spare you them). "So I had to do him in." (Again, I got the details.)

I felt bad. "Oh, man, that didn't happen like it was supposed to," I told Dave. "He was getting to be a part of our family. I had considered making him a pet instead of getting rid of him."

I threw the other sticky trap into the garbage and went to bed with a not-so-hazy image of that poor little fellow's final hours.

The next day I went to buy a mousetrap. I bought the old-fashioned kind -- that you put peanut butter and set the spring on -- so when they hunker down for dinner they perish before their first swallow.

We got the mouse's spouse a few nights later.

That's about it. No more mice in the towel drawers. No more birdseed in the tennis shoes. No more early morning foraging noises to wake us up from our dreams.

I know I did what I had to do, but even so I feel sad about having done it. I wish we just could have coexisted peacefully. I wish mice could read. I'd put up a sign saying, "You are welcome on my property, but stay out of my house... or beware!"

And I have concluded that nobody yet has built a better mousetrap. The old kind is effective and quick and therefore humane -- if being humane is important to you.

I guess it is important to me. Is that silly? I don't know. Maybe there is someone crazy in this house. But it isn't Dave and it isn't the dogs. So you know who that leaves.

Scott Wakeley found a medallion from the Holiday Inn at Stephan Bridge. Amy Kolka found a medallion from Davis Jewelry also near Stephan Bridge. Missy Conklin found a medallion from North End Grocery near the Frederic Fire Dept.

Todd Wakeley found the McLean's Hardware medallion on the eternal flame. Monica Ashton found Moore's Auto medallion in the industrial park. Randy Baerlocher found Flower's by Josie's medallion near McIntyre's Landing sign. Paula and her son Mo Harwood found the Caid's Grocery medallion on a Shupac Lake sign.

Eight small medallions worth about $240 were still not turned in as of Tuesday morning. If you find a small medallion, you may turn it into the Avalanche from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. Mon.-Fri. Clues for the small medallions will be given out on the radio stations until Friday night, Feb. 2. The Grayling Chamber of Commerce sponsored the $500 cash prize for the big medallion. R&H Sports contributed toward the medallion hunt. The big medallion was found on the 7th day of the 12-day hunt, tying the record for the earliest the big medallion has been found during the seven years the hunt has taken place.

Manistee River Plan

--Developed engineering drawings and cost estimates for treating another 14 sites which include critical sites on the Upper Manistee's mainstem at Mancelona and Cameron Bridge Roads, at Goose Creek Trail and at the CCC Bridge Campgrounds.

--Monitored closely the crossings and stream-bank stabilization measures associated with the new 36 inch pipeline loop installed by the Great Lakes Gas Transmission Company. The report stated that the pipeline company, its contractors, Willbros Engineering and Welded Construction, and its environmental consultant, Braun Environmental Laboratories, "all proved very cooperative" responding to committee concerns during their construction project.

--The Michigan Department of Natural Resources (DNR), with some volunteer assistance from the private sector performed the third in a series of annual surveys to determine the year-to-year status of trout populations, began a long-term study comparing the relative performance of Bitterroot-strain brown trout and typical Michigan-hatchery browns planted as yearlings, the second annual volunteer angling (creel) census, and began a three year pilot study, involving volunteer Upper Manistee River Association observers, to develop more definite information on the detrimental affect of the chestnut lampreys on the trout population.

"We are overwhelmed with the amount of progress we have been able to make considering we only began in May," said Joe Kutkuhn, chairman of the UMRRC. "It just shows what can be accomplished when groups work together."

1990 GOALS

The UMRRC and its agents will be tackling the following restoration activities in 1990:

--Complete a long-range Action Plan (see boxed in area).

--Finish the inventory of streambank erosion on major tributaries as well as on the main-stream, from Lucas Road in Missaukee County downstream to highway US-131 in Wexford County, of the Upper Manistee River System.

--Complete the treatment engineering (prescriptions) for all inventoried erosion sites on the Upper Manistee River system above highway M-72, the remaining sites on Portage Creek and all sites rated severe between M-72 and M-66. If time and resource allow, the committee will also begin work on sites where erosion problems are rated moderate.

--Finish treatment on work began on sites in 1989.

--Begin on a priority basis and as financial resources permit, work on other major erosion sites, especially at heavily used access points such as road crossings and campgrounds.

--Begin laying the groundwork for the removal of sediment from the upper mainstem and Portage Creek and repair existing and building additional fish cover to improve fish habitat.

--Continue work with the DNR to bring about the repair or improvement of heavily used public access points at the Goose Creek Trail and CCC Bridge Campgrounds.

Kutkuhn said that with the improvements in the UMRRC's organizational functions, administrative and accounting procedures and a good backlog of ready-to-implement plans in place, the committee looks forward to an increasingly efficient operation in 1990.

The UMRRC membership includes the DNR, Department of Military Affairs, United States Department of Agriculture Soil Conservation Service, Michigan Council Trout Unlimited, Crawford-Roscommon Soil and Water Conservation District (SWCD), Kalkaska SWCD, Otsego Soil Conservation District, Crawford County Road Commission, Otsego Road Commission, Kalkaska Road Commission, Huron Pines Resource Conservation and Development Area Council, Manistee River Assoc., and the Upper Manistee River Assoc.

Kutkuhn said that as chairman, he is extremely pleased with the support and cooperation the restoration committee has received from the community for this major effort. In addition to the committee's 13 members, project assistance has been received from the residents and staff of the Shawano Center, Michigan Youth Corps and the Mainstream Flow Group, a consulting firm from Auburn, Michigan.

Kiltie Band Featured In Feb. 3 Concert Series

The first season of the Crawford-AuSable Community Education Concert Series "Learning Through Music" continues when the Alma College Kiltie Band arrives on Saturday, February 3, for a 7:30 p.m. engagement in the Joseph Stripe Auditorium at Grayling High School.

This promises to be a pleasant evening of music and extra special to Grayling residents as the Alma Band includes one of our former high school band students, Amy Hough.

Amy, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. James Hough, is currently attending Alma College and will be traveling with the band on its upcoming southern tour. Saturday evening's concert will be the pre-tour kickoff for the band.

Douglas Scripps, conductor, has put together a fine program which will include not only a sampling of their jazz ensemble, but also the sound of bagpipes. Saturday's audience will enjoy songs from the Lerner and Loewe Scottish Broadway musical, Brigadoon, such as "Down on MacConnachy Square", "Heather on the Hill", and "I'll Go Home With Bonnie Jean"; "The Gallant Seventh" by John Philip Sousa; "Swords of Mod-Ling" by Gordon Peters; "Annie Laurie" and many more.

Scripps joined the Alma College faculty in 1985. He conducts or supervises the instrumental ensembles and lectures in orchestration and conducting. Professor Scripps is the music director for the Grand Rapids Ballet Company, founded the Kent Philharmonic Orchestra and serves on the Michigan Council for the Arts. He was the Grand Rapids Symphony Orchestra's associate conductor, is a former conductor of the Lake St. Clair Orchestra, has conducted for the Joffrey Ballet Company, Interlochen Arts Academy, and has guest-conducted for most of Michigan's major musical organizations.

The present day Kiltie Band was established at the suggestion of the Rev. William Malcolm, a Presbyterian minister from Three Rivers, Michigan, in 1937. The "new" band reflected the change in the Athletic Department's nickname from "Fighting Presbyterians" to "Alma Scots" in 1931 and the Kiltie Band made its debut at a football game in October, 1938, when it appeared in the Royal McPherson Kilts, which they have worn to the present day.

In recent years, the Kiltie Band has presented concerts in fourteen states and Canada.

Over 300 season tickets have been purchased for this series and there are only about 60 tickets still available for this concert. Community School Director Robert Hannon is encouraging people to purchase their tickets as soon as possible. Tickets, $5 each, may be purchased through the Community Education Box Office at the Grayling High School by calling 348-7641, ext. 27, today.

Refreshments will be served following the concert and the audience will have an opportunity during this time to meet and visit with the members of the band.

The "Learning Through Music" concert series featuring college and university bands from around the state of Michigan is the only project of its kind and has been made possible by the cooperative effort and support of the Crawford-AuSable School District Community Education, Georgia Pacific Co., Chemical Bank North, Grayling State Bank, Great Lakes Bancorp and the Michigan Council for the Arts - Cheboygan Area Arts Council Regranting Agency.

Diponio, Jurkovich Win Slalom, Giant Slalom Races

Skilling at Sylvan Resort last week provided several Viking Skiers with big victories.

Grayling skiers won both events but lost the meet to Petoskey 30-47. East Jordan was 3rd with 100.

The boys skied the giant slalom event first and senior John Jurkovich turned in two super runs to win the event. In slalom, John placed 5th while team mate Tony Diponio was winning the event. Tony placed 5th in the giant slalom.

"Against Petoskey it's been a few years since we have won any events either in girls or boys skiing. Both boys skied very well in winning," said Grayling ski coach Mike Wieland.

Other skiers in the meet were Jon Renard placing 7th in slalom and 9th in giant slalom. Pete Opperman placed 8th and 10th, Scott Hartman placed 10th and 12th with Clem Lochner placing 12 in slalom and Chris Lehti 11th in giant slalom to finish out the 18 racer field.

The Lady Vikes placed 2nd behind Petoskey and defeated

East Jordan 75-77. Karen Febey once again was the Vikings top skier placing 4th in slalom and 8th in giant slalom despite a slight fall. Anne Petroskey placed 6th in slalom and topped the other lady Vikes in giant slalom placing 7th. Jenni Lochner finished 10th in slalom and 14th in giant slalom. Tara Bertalan disqualified in slalom and placed 13th in giant slalom. Elissa Cox finished the Viking scoring, placing 18th in slalom and 16th in giant slalom.

The Vikes next ski in the very tough Traverse City Invitational at Sugar Loaf Mt. near Cedar. It generally features many of last year's top finishers in the state finals.

Vikings Play League Leaders

Grayling allowed Houghton Lake to dictate the game plan on Tuesday night, January 23, and lost the non-conference game, 59-42, in front of home fans.

"Houghton Lake played good ball and Grayling played poorly," said varsity coach Tom Mills, "and the score indicated the difference."

Jim Abney led the Grayling effort with 11 points and 12 rebounds. Other points were made by: Matt Branch 6, Tony Doremire, Eric LaForest, Shane Fraser and Kirk Annis had 4 points each, Scott Nicholas and Jay Merles had 3 points each and Chad Bonamie and Ron Doe scored 2 points each.

Mills said that Houghton Lake moved the ball well to the passing lanes and Grayling did not cut them off.

Offensively, Grayling did not shoot well and Houghton Lake out rebounded the Vikings. Inclement weather forced the cancellation of Friday's game at Gaylord. This game has been rescheduled for Saturday, February 10 at 6 p.m.

Grayling hosted Cheboygan on Tuesday night and will be traveling to Charlevoix on Friday.

Coach Mills said Tuesday night's game was a big ball game for Grayling. A win on Tuesday would put Grayling tied for second place, one game out of first, playing the leader, Charlevoix on Friday.

J.V.'s Beaten By Houghton Lake

The Grayling J.V.'s came up against the quick aggressive Houghton Lake Bobcats on Tuesday, January 23, and left the floor having been beaten soundly, 90-45.

Houghton Lake led Grayling throughout the game. The halftime score was 49-18 and the third quarter score was 71-32.

"Houghton Lake took 89 shots to our 45," said Coach Butch Hayes. "That's almost twice as many shots." Hayes said Grayling only shot 16 for 39 from the free throw line, and that did not make him happy either.

Scott Haas was high scorer for the Vikings with 9 points. Nick Hebekeuser scored 8 points and had 5 rebounds, Eric Bonamie had 7 points and 4 steals, Chad Ormsbee 6 points and 4 steals, Mike Kirmo 5 points and 6 steals, Aaron Raymond 4 points and 6 rebounds, Mark Andrus 3 points and 5 rebounds and Ken Bindschattel had 3 points.

"Houghton Lake was a good team," said Hayes. "They were quick and aggressive and we need to toughen up on defense."

The J.V.'s played Cheboygan on Tuesday on their home court and play at Charlevoix on Friday.

SPORTS FANS!

I Bet You Didn't Know

Brought To You By Cliff Wheeler Sales Representative

Here's a football fact that may surprise you... The National Football League was in existence 47 YEARS before the first Super Bowl game was played... The NFL started in 1920... but the first Super Bowl wasn't played until 1967.

In the entire history of the National Basketball Association... only 2 players ever scored more than 3,000 points in a season... Can you name the only 2 players to do it?... They are Wilt Chamberlain and Michael Jordan... Chamberlain did it in 1960-61, 1961-62 and 1962-63... Jordan did it in 1986-87.

Do you know who's the oldest person ever to play in the National Basketball Association?... Answer is Kareem Abdul-Jabbar... He was 42 when he played for the Lakers last season... and he set the record as the oldest man ever to play in the NBA.

NOTICE OF AVAILABILITY OF AN ENVIRONMENTAL ASSESSMENT

An Environmental Assessment has been prepared for the fixed wing aircraft portion of Project CHICKEN LITTLE (89-8), a US Air Force project testing the ability of a new generation of sensors to locate and identify ground vehicles. No weapon firing will be involved in this project nor will it necessitate the closing of public roads.

Fixed wing aircraft used in the test will consist of three propeller driven and one jet civilian aircraft similar to corporate aircraft currently operating out of Grayling's McNamara Airport. These aircraft will spend most of their time over Camp Grayling's Range 30 Complex and when outside Camp Grayling boundaries will fly at approximately 1,000 feet (twice the minimum altitude required by the FAA). Fixed wing test aircraft missions will begin on February 26, occur during daylight hours on weekdays, and end March 30, 1990. A typical test mission will consist of one fixed wing aircraft flying for one to two hours. A total of approximately 38 such missions are planned over the 25 available test days. A maximum of four missions will be flown on any one day.

The public is invited to review and comment on the Environmental Assessment. Beginning February 6, 1990 the Environmental Assessment may be reviewed at:

1. The Headquarters of the Michigan National Guard, 2500 S. Washington Ave., Lansing. (517) 483-5646
2. Camp Grayling Headquarters, Building 11, Camp Grayling. (517) 348-3778

Written comments may be submitted to:

Greg Huntington
Environmental Coordinator
Michigan Dept. of Military Affairs
2500 S. Washington Ave.
Lansing, MI 48913

Substantive written comments received at the above address within 15 days of the published notice will be made part of the Environmental Assessment.

Sorenson, Thorsen, Moore Capture 1st

The Grayling Matmen confronted nine tough downstate teams including Shepherd, ranked #1 in the state, at Cadwin last Saturday, January 27, and the GHS wrestlers brought home first place medals for their effort.

Facing first were: Tony Sorenson at 119 pounds winning 4 out of 4 matches, Todd Thorsen at 180 winning 3 of 3 and Andy Moore at 125 winning 3 of 4 matches. Dan Jurkovich at 103 took second place winning 2 of 4 matches.

Third place medal winners were: Chad Broeker at 112, Sam Mack at 130, Joe LaForest at 140. All three won their third place medals by taking 2 of their 4 matches. Denny Springer at 171 also took third place by winning 2 out of 5 matches.

Coach Don Ferguson said the Gladwin meet used a new format for wrestling.

"No matter how many times you got beat you kept on wrestling," he explained. Ferguson said he liked the new format because it offered wrestlers more matches and more matches equates to more experience.

Grayling wrestled against Glen Lake and Gaylord at Gaylord on Tuesday night and would be then preparing for the Team Conference Meet at Sault Ste. Marie on Saturday, February 3.

February 8th is the team's last home meet and will be parent's night. Grayling will be hosting Onaway and Cheboygan.

Beaver Creek Challenge Celebrates 10th Race Year

When it comes to nordic (cross-country) ski races, it's hard to beat the Beaver Creek Challenge held this weekend at the North Higgins Lake State Park Trail System.

"We believe that the Beaver Creek Challenge is one of the few ski races that truly caters to the needs of skiers," says Brian Hutchins, 1990 Race Chairperson. "Each year, we see many of the same racers return and receive lots of compliments on how well-run the race always is."

The Beaver Creek Challenge is organized by the AuSable Valley Nordic Ski Club (AV-NSC) and sponsored by local businesses. AV-NSC is celebrating the tenth year that the race has been run in the Higgins Lake area.

The Beaver Creek Challenge is actually three races in one. For adults, there is a 6 and 12 kilometer race to choose from, while for children, ages 5-10, there is a 2 kilometer race. Most of the highly competitive racers ski in the 12 kilometer race, thus making this the most challenging event.

This year's ski race will be held this Sunday, February 4th, at the North Higgins Lake State Park (State Park parking permit required). The cost to enter is $12 for the adult races and $1 for children's race. For adults, a complimentary T-shirt is included as part of the registration fee. Registration runs from 10:30 a.m. to 11:45 a.m.

Volleyballers Jinxed By 2 Gaylord Teams

Grayling lost a see-saw match to St. Mary's Monday night, January 29, when Grayling, ahead 15-12 and 15-13 went on to lose the match, 15-7, 16-14 and 15-11.

Coach Becky Brown said in the fourth game Grayling was down by 9 points and came back to tie the score 14-14, but Grayling lost the serve and Gaylord went on to win the game 16-14.

Brown said that Laurie Mier's performance was the bright spot of the match. She said Laurie is a developing junior who has worked hard. During the match with St. Mary's, Laurie, who is a substitute, not a starter, got 9 serves, 15 spikes and 4 blocks, and let all spikers.

Nikki Trenary led in serves with 20. Heather Pelton had 16, Tammy Duby 11, Melanie Ojala and Heather Stephenson had 9 each and Shannon Gizinski and Lisa Barber had 6 each. Nikki Trenary led in setting with 47 and Heather Pelton had 20.

Defensively, Heather Stephenson had 58 good passes, Melanie Ojala had 38, Laurie Mier 38, and Margarita Perez 31.

Heather Stephenson led in spiking with 12. Nikki Trenary had 9 and Melanie Ojala had 8.

Heather Stephenson led in blocking with 9 and Nikki Trenary had 3.

On Wednesday night Grayling lost to Gaylord 15-10, 15-9 and 15-5.

Brown said her team never really got going. "We did not set up and we did not attack well," she said. "When we served, we did not communicate and work together as a team." Brown said Grayling only served 65 percent and a team cannot serve that low and do well.

Following the game, Brown said the team had a good meeting and she feels they are back on track regarding what playing as a team is all about.

"I'm just sorry it took a loss to learn the lesson," said Brown.

Grayling will be hosting Charlevoix on Wednesday, January 31, and then plays in a 24-team tournament at the Inland Lakes Schools in Indian River on February 3.

The Bible Speaks

From Calvary Baptist Church

The Gospel of John Part #112 Behold His Dying Words

There are seven sayings of Jesus Christ on the Cross. The first was a prayer of mercy to forgive the sinners who crucified Him. "Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do." (Luke 23:34). The second was a promise of salvation by grace to a dying thief. "And Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, Today shalt thou be with me in paradise." (Luke 23:43). The third was a provision of love for His earthly mother. He simply said, "Woman, behold thy son!" and to John, "Behold thy mother!" The fourth was His perplexity of loneliness in His sacrificial atonement. "And at the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eloi, Eloi, Lama sabachthani? Which is, being interpreted, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?" (Mark 15:34).

Today, we continue in John 19:28 with His fifth saying, the prophetic fulfillment of His human suffering. "After this Jesus knowing that all things were now accomplished, that the scripture might be fulfilled, saith, I thirst." Centuries before it was written: "My strength is dried up like a potsherd; and my tongue cleaveth to my jaws? and thou hast brought me into the dust of death." (Psalm 22:15). "They gave me also gall for my meat, and in my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink." (Psalm 69:21). In fulfillment of these words we read, "Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar: and they filled a sponge with vinegar, and put it upon hyssop, and put it to his mouth." (John 19:29). The vinegar was given Him in mockery by the Roman soldiers. (Luke 23:36; Mark 15:36).

His sixth saying followed the vinegar. "When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, It is finished: and he bowed his head, and gave up the ghost." (John 19:30). These are most assuring words of victory, that Jesus Christ did everything necessary in His flesh to purchase our salvation. As that great Christian chorus says: "Jesus paid it all, All to Him I owe: Sin had left a crimson stain, He washed it white as snow." For a sinner to claim one human merit or good work towards salvation, he must attempt to rob Jesus Christ of the glory of His finished work on the cross of Calvary. Salvation is all of God; all of grace!! His seventh saying, as God He spoke the words which brought about His own death. "And when Jesus had cried with a loud voice, he said, Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit: and having said thus, he gave up the ghost." (John 19:30). He was God in control even in death. (John 1:18). He did all of this for our eternal salvation. What a Savior!!

But for the Grace of GOD

Scriptures Selected by The American Bible Society

Sunday John 11:1-44
Monday John 12:20-36
Tuesday John 12:37-50
Wednesday John 15:1-17
Thursday Colossians 2:1-10
Friday Colossians 1:3-14
Saturday Colossians 2:11-19

The weather is cold. The chocolate is hot. In the living room, the fireplace pops and crackles while snow falls silently against steamed windowpanes. Oh, how wonderful to be in our cozy home, laughing at the cold, daring it to enter our warm haven.

Most of us are fortunate. We have shelter and food. We snuggle up close to those we love. One flick of the thermostat creates our chosen environment.

Everyone is not so fortunate. Some huddle over sidewalk grates for temporary warmth. Others beg on street corners for enough change to buy a hot cup of coffee or a frugal meal. We may view them with disdain, assuming that they do not care enough to better themselves.

God tells us not to judge, but to love even "the least of these."

Enter God's house this week. Thank Him for His blessings and pray for those less fortunate.

Resource Review

By Bruce Patrick
Conservation Officer

Questions often arise as to the applicability of fishing regulations on private lakes. The answer depends on which of two kinds of private lakes are involved.

Fish in private lakes having a connection with public waters by which they can migrate, at any time of year, are the property of the state and may be taken only in accordance with law. The owner of the lake may determine who fishes there, but all regulations regarding seasons, sizes, limits and equipment apply. Examples of this type of lake are Shellenbarger Lake in Crawford County; Shamrock and Bass

Lakes in Oscoda County and Lake James in Roscommon County.

Fish in private lakes having no connection with public waters are considered private property and the taking of such fish is not subject to legislative restriction. However, persons possessing such fish contrary to law off the premises from which taken could be subject to criminal sanction.

In other words, if you fish a private lake which is connected to public waters by an inlet or outlet, you must obey fishing laws. If you fish a private lake that is not connected, you are not restrained by statute until you have left the premises.

THINK SPRING

Now that the holidays are over
Comes the time to settle down
To wait out the cold winter
Till spring comes to our town

When that cold north wind is blowing
And snow is piled high outside our door
Let's look ahead to those warm spring days
That are coming we are sure

Let's think of those bright spring flowers
Of those days so soft and warm
When our hearts are light and happy
That we survived the winter storm

These winter days will quickly pass
We can't let them get us down
When we can look ahead to springtime
When flowers will bloom all over town

Just months from now we'll hear the trill
Of song birds in the trees
The sun will shine with welcome warmth
The smell of flowers will scent the breeze

Enjoy these cold winter days
By reading a good book by your fire
Or spend some time with your old friends
Or what ever you might desire

Soon the days will be getting longer
The sunshine will grow warm
In the joy that spring will bring us
We'll soon forget the winter storm

More than 25 different events are scheduled for the three-day winter carnival.

On Friday, Feb. 2, the final clues for the $1,000 Winter Carnival Medallion Hunt will be given. The Chamber of Commerce sponsors the $500 grand prize and local businesses have donated $500 in other prizes.

Also on Friday, the Business Ice Sculpture Contest will be judged. An ice skating party with a bonfire and sing-along will be held at Hanson Hills later at 8 p.m. Friday.

On Saturday, Feb. 3, most of the activities take place in the Grayling City Park.

The Polar Bear Plunge will highlight the day. A couple dozen residents and visitors are expected to take the plunge in the AuSable River regardless of the temperature. Wind chill temperatures reached 20 below zero during the first Polar Bear Plunge in 1988 yet about 25 brave "polar bears" still went in the water.

The Polar Bear Plunge takes place near the wooden bridge in the city park beginning at 11 a.m.

From 10:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday a White Elephant Sale will take place at the Grayling Elementary School.

At 11:30 a.m. the Klondike Race and The Up the Down Stream Canoe Race will be held starting at Ray's Canoe Livery.

At 1 p.m. the Snow Volleyball Tournament will begin in the city park. The Kiwanis Club is also sponsoring Junior Scavenger Hunts at 1 p.m.

At 1:30 p.m. a photo session with the Miss Grayling Court will be held in the city park.

On Sunday, the events start early with a Pancake Breakfast at Hanson Hills from 8 a.m. to 11 a.m.

The Michigan Arm Wrestling

Championships will begin at 11 a.m. at the Grayling Red Barn. The Championships are expected to be an all-day event with all proceeds going to Special Olympics.

At 12 noon Sunday, the downhill ski races will begin at Hanson Hills. At 1:30 p.m. the cross-country ski races will begin at Hanson Hills. For more information on these races call Hanson Hills.

At 2:30 p.m. the 4-H ice sculptures will be judged at Hanson Hills. At 3 p.m. the kids' downhill tube races will begin.

At 3:30 p.m. Miss Grayling 1990 will be photographed on the Queen's Throne at Hanson Hills.

At 4:00 p.m. a closing ceremony and awards ceremony will be held at Hanson Hills. The $500 prize Medallion Hunt winner will receive the cash prize then and other winter sports carnival winners will receive awards.

Winter Carnival buttons, costing $2 each, are necessary to participate in most of the events.

Thousands Coming For Annual Snow Carnival

3 Big Days Starting Friday. Flint, Detroit, E. Lansing Sending Trains

Jimmy Stevenson To Crown Queen At Winter Park Sun.

Next Sunday promises to be the biggest winter sports day in the history of Grayling. Nothing but unfavorable weather can possibly stop it, and at the present time good weather is assured.

At least two trains, and possibly three, are scheduled to come from Detroit, and a train of 15 coaches will be here from Flint. At least 2,500 will arrive on the snow trains. Besides this many busses and private cars are bound to bring in additional crowds.

Everything at the big park is ready to entertain the visitors and to afford them the winter pleasures they are looking for. Four toboggan slides are in tip-top condition and the slides are fast and thrilling. The skating rink is excellent, and the ski trails are becoming more popular every day. This latter sport promises to become one of the biggest attractions of the park. Within another season there will be 75 miles of ski trails marked out for use. At present only a few miles are in first-class condition, while more can be used but are not first-class.

Saddle skiing too is making a big hit among the young and older persons.

Carnival Week-end

Friday afternoon the carnival clock will be punched and the big event will be on. Saturday will mark the arrival of many famous visitors. In the afternoon Jimmy Stevenson, well-known WJR radio broadcaster, and a large crowd of sports writers and radio commentators, will arrive by auto. At 6:00 p. m. the former will conduct his usual news broadcast from Grayling schoolhouse. The public will be admitted to this if desired, however, everyone must be in the room by 5:45 o'clock. After that time nobody will be admitted.

To Crown Queen at Ball

Saturday evening the Queen's Ball will be held at the school gymnasium. The big gym will be decorated in regal style for the occasion. An elaborate program will be presented.

Here Charles Gehringer will have a prominent part in the carnival program when he will be called upon to preside at the coronation ceremonies. He will be assisted by the popular baseball idol, Barney McCoskey, of the Detroit Tigers and WJR's Jimmy Stevenson.

This is a feature that nobody will want to miss, and will be an occasion that will be long remembered.

A 12-piece orchestra will furnish the music and there will be plenty of opportunity for dancing.

Throughout the days of the carnival there will be a lot of activity at the winter park. Everything will be in operation.

The new 1940 ice throne is going to be a surprise to everyone who hasn't seen it. Leave it to Clarence Johnson and Johnny Deckrow to see to it that Grayling will have a throne that will be outstanding in beauty and design.

Here again Queen Norberta Weiss will be crowned by Jimmy Stevenson, for the pleasure of the thousands who will be at the park that day and not able to attend the Queen's Ball the previous night.

WJR'S Jimmy Stevenson To Crown Snow Queen

Jimmy Stevenson, famed news and sports announcer at WJR, Detroit, will crown the Snow Queen at Grayling's Winter Carnival on Saturday, February 3. He will arrive at Grayling Saturday afternoon, accompanied by a large party of Detroit Winter Sports enthusiasts, including Charlie Gehringer, famous second baseman and Barney McCoskey of the Detroit Tigers. Jimmy is a prime favorite with radio listeners in Northern Michigan and hopes to meet hundreds of his friends at Grayling. Special lines will be installed to enable him to broadcast his Saturday evening news from Grayling.

15 Coaches To Bring Flint Crowd Sunday

BACKED BY FLINT C-O-F-C
1000 PEOPLE EXPECTED

Ever since Grayling winter sports have assumed headline proportions, people from Flint have had a keen interest and every week-end sees many from this city in Grayling. The Flint train brought 600 here last winter, and this year the sale of tickets has already exceeded that number.

Here's what the Flint Journal has to say about next Sunday's excursion:

"More than 700 tickets have been sold for Flint's community snow train which will be operated to Grayling next Sunday, Feb. 4, according to a preliminary check by Norman H. Hill, manager of the Chamber of Commerce, which is sponsoring the trip.

"This is already more than the total number—about 600—who made the excursion last year.

"With the capacity of the train limited to 1,000 persons, a sell-out is considered certain, and early purchase of tickets is urged by Mr. Hill. He said that no persons can be allowed to board the train Sunday unless they have obtained tickets in advance.

"Fifteen coaches will carry the local winter sports enthusiasts, in addition to a baggage car where sports equipment can be checked and a lunch car which will furnish refreshments.

La Voies to Chaperone

"One or two cars, located immediately behind the baggage coach, will be given over to high school youngsters, who will be chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Nap LaVoie. Other cars have been reserved by the Flint Hike club, Junior Chamber of Commerce, The Journal and Lippincott Motor Sales, Inc.

"More time will be available at Grayling this year because the train will leave from the Pere Marquette railway station downtown and go directly north via Saginaw. The train will pull out of Flint at 7 a. m. and is scheduled to arrive at Grayling before 11 a. m. Returning, the party will leave at 5:30 p. m. and be back here before 9:30.

"Participating in the ceremony of crowning Grayling's snow queen will be Charlie Gehringer and Barney McCoskey, Tiger stars, and Jimmy Stevenson, radio announcer. The coronation ceremony will take place while the Flint party is at the winter sports park.

"The rate for the trip of $3 for adults and $1.50 for children under 12 includes railway fare, transportation by bus to and from the sports park near Grayling and admission to the park."

QUEEN PHOTOGRAPHED WITH GOVERNOR

"Birdie" Tebbetts and Queen Norberta Weiss were presented before the Kiwanis club at Lansing last Thursday noon, by Kiwanian O. P. Schumann. Both made a big hit and Queen Norberta told the 120 members that she hoped to see them at Grayling winter sports. They all agreed to be here.

Later this group visited Governor Dickinson in the executive offices. The latter, in his younger days, used to play ball, and "Birdie" said to the Governor, "as one ball player to another, will you please let us take your picture with our Queen?" The request was gladly granted and the Governor, Queen Norberta and "Birdie" smiled their best as a Free Press photographer took several pictures.

Our Queen was that evening introduced before a banquet of about 500 newspaper publishers and others.

HAD GRAND TIME AT WINTER PARK

Lee A. Fordon, vice-president of the Detroit Nesting-Stacking Box Co., and June Carmen of Detroit, were in Grayling several days enjoying winter sports and taking instruction in skiing. They left for home Wednesday and left us the following note:

The writer wishes to thank those people of Grayling who are responsible for the splendid winter sports park they have made available to the public.

And especially I want to congratulate you for obtaining the services of an excellent ski instructor in the person of Mr. Alfred Orhm.

Lee A. Fordon. And Miss Carmen asked us to attach her name as a signer of the letter.

Miss Carmen is a professional toe dancer and recently returned from a European engagement. She says she will spend a few days in Detroit after which she will go to New York where she has engagements.

Both Mr. Fordon and Miss Carmen are enthusiastic over the "grand" time they had been having here.

Notice To Eating Places

Grayling should never let it be said that one can't get anything to eat here. Next Sunday snow trains will bring in 2,400 passengers—1,000 from Detroit, 1,000 from Flint, and 400 from East Lansing. And there will be thousands coming by auto. There will be hungry mouths to feed and it is the wish of the officers of Grayling Winter Sports, Inc., that all eating places be prepared with enough meats and other foods to feed this crowd.

PLEASE BE PREPARED

10,000 Attended 15th Winter Sports Carnival

2,055 Passengers on Snow Trains

Grayling's 15th Annual Winter Sports Carnival is now history. And what a success it was! Thousands jammed their way into this city and Grayling Winter Park Sunday and it seemed that just about every available space in the city and park was occupied. These places were literally alive with enthusiastic humanity.

Friday, the first day of the carnival, was enjoyed in the day, skating, skiing, tobogganing and other activities at the park.

Saturday noon saw the advance delegations of a mighty throng that was to follow. By noon the city was a hive of activity. By late afternoon every hotel room in the city had been reserved. Homes were opened to care for the visitors and Mercy Hospital housed scores for the night.

Jimmy Stevenson of WJR brought with him a group of about 20, including many husbands and wives. The latter were entertained at the home of Mrs. C. G. Clippert during the afternoon, while the men enjoyed the facilities of the winter park.

In the evening the ladies were entertained at a banquet at Shoppenagons Inn, an account of which appears elsewhere in this issue of the Avalanche.

Saturday evening the officers of Winter Sports, Inc., tendered a banquet to many of the visiting radio announcers, newsmen, cameramen and others, at the Fischer Hotel dining room. About 40 were present. "Birdie" Tebbetts, Grayling winter sports publicity agent, welcomed the guests and introduced Glenn MacDonald, managing editor of the Bay City Times, as toastmaster for the evening.

Among those called upon for talks were Jimmy Stevenson, Charles Gehringer and Barney McCoskey of the Detroit Tigers, Mayor George Burke, President C. J. McNamara. Mr. Stevenson complimented the winter sports officials on the grand winter park they have provided for the good of the public. He paid a special tribute to Don Young, local Western Union operator, on the able manner in which he handled his 7000 word broadcast as it was telegraphed from Detroit. It was a masterful job, he said.

Tebbetts said that every Grayling man present and many others who were not present, had actively identified himself in interest of Grayling winter park. This cooperation was sincerely appreciated by him and the park officials.

Queen's Ball

Very lovely in all its splendor was the Queen's Ball, that was held Saturday night at the school gymnasium. The ball room held one of the largest crowds ever present at an affair of its kind, with many spectators seated in the balcony. Music was furnished by a 12-piece orchestra of Traverse City, and the floor was filled to capacity for every dance it was so enjoyable. Dancing began at 9:30 o'clock and with hosts of guests from out of the city, the party proved one of the most pleasant events of the carnival.

Time for the crowning of Grayling's snow queen, Norberta Weiss, came with the party at its height. This was a gorgeous sight as the cortege moved to the throne to the strains of "Winter Wonderland." Six boys, Louis Kraus, Burton Peterson, Billy Hinsley, Allyn Maxwell, Eugene Corwin and Bob Clark, in white uniforms and wearing red hats and keeping perfect step marched to the foot of the throne and trumpeted the arrival of the Queen.

At the throne awaited Mrs. Nadine McNeven-Heath, Queen of 1933, for little Sandra Sue Sweeney, who, carrying the beautiful silver crown on a white satin prie-dieu made her way to it. In a green silk organdy frock with a green satin bow tied in her golden hair, Sandra was very sweet. Following came the members of the court who were Elsie Mae LaMotte, Ruth Burrows, Elva Lee Oranger, Natalie Peterson, June Morris, Bonita DeLaMater, the latter who was maid-in-waiting, Mary Jane Joseph and Gloria MacNeven. They were dressed in gowns of pink, blue and aqua chiffon, three in blue, three in pink and two in green.

The gowns were all made alike, floor length and shirred at the waistline, and they carried quaint Colonial bouquets, tied with satin ribbon streamers.

Queen Norberta, amid loud applause, appeared looking very beautiful. Her gown was white chiffon made floor length with a sweetheart neckline and short puffed sleeves. Over this she wore the traditional purple robe and carried an arm bouquet of pink roses tied with satin ribbon. Two little curly-haired tots, Marlene Sorenson and Shirlee Souders, clad in black velvet panties and white satin blouses were the queen's pages, and they with Sandra Sue captivated the crowd with their cuteness. Billyann Clippert and Nelle Welsh officiated as door pages.

Finally with the queen and her attendants at the throne, ex-queen, Nadine Heath, gowned in white lace presented the crown to Jimmy Stevenson, who together with Charles Gehringer and Barney McCoskey proceeded with the crowning. The former placed the crown on the queen's head and in his happy manner asked the opinions of Messrs. Gehringer and McCoskey if it were acceptable to them, to which they nodded their assent. With the crowning ceremonies over, Queen Norberta was whisked away in the crowd by Jimmy Stevenson, who claimed the first dance.

The gymnasium decorations which were simple but pretty were the same as those used at the ball when the queen was chosen early in January. Don Sweeney was in charge of the decorations.

Credit for the grandeur and success of the Queen's Ball goes unlimitably to Mrs. C. G. Clippert, Mrs. Esbern Hanson, Mrs. A. J. Joseph, Miss Margrethe Bauman, Mrs. C. J. McNamara and Mrs. Harold MacNeven. These ladies are to be congratulated for the very beautiful affair enjoyed by so many.

Queen's Banquet

The winter sports queens were honor guests at a banquet for ladies at Shoppenagons Inn Saturday evening.

The long table was centered with a huge, beautifully decorated queen's cake on the top of which was a miniature queen in a royal robe; large bouquets of spring flowers graced the ends of the table. The attendance was so large that other tables were arranged for the overflow.

Mrs. C. G. Clippert acted as toastmistress, introducing the queen, as she and her court took their places at the table, after the other guests were seated. The queen responded in a very lovely manner to the introduction, and expressed her appreciation, for her self and her court, for the very fine courtesies which had been extended to them, especially by the queen's committee, Mrs. Clippert, Mrs. Esbern Hanson, Miss Margrethe Bauman.

The out-of-town guests were also introduced by Mrs. Clippert with the banquet following.

"Birdie" Tebbetts, winter sports publicity director, came in for an informal farewell talk, thanking the queen's committee, and the queen and her court, as well as the many other ladies who have co-operated with him and the winter sports officials in making the season such a fine success.

The toastmistress then introduced Mrs. C. J. McNamara, wife of the president of Winter Sports, Inc., who gave a resume of the growth of Grayling's winter sports. Mrs. McNamara's very gracious manner and splendid knowledge of the history of winter sports from the pioneer days to the present time, made her talk one of the outstanding features of the program. The lovely place cards found at the places, as well as the darling little queen on the cake were made by Mrs. Herbert Trudeau.

Miss Margrethe Bauman had charge of arrangement of the banquet.

When Trains Came In

The crowds didn't wait long Sunday morning before going to the winter park and soon that place was going full swing. This kept up all day long and far into the night. When the snow train from Flint, with its nearly 800 passengers arrived, Grayling and the winter park were busy in real earnest. Then when the two Detroit trains, with nearly 1500 more passengers arrived, and highways were teaming with autos, every available place seemed occupied. The huge auto parking space at the winter park, which it was believed could accommodate any possible crowds, soon was filled to overflowing and a mile of autos lined the highway.

In the afternoon Jimmy Stevenson assisted "Birdie" Tebbetts in crowning Norberta Weiss queen of Grayling's 1940 winter sports. Accompanying Queen Norberta was her court — Bonita DeLaMater, maid in waiting; Elsie Mae LaMotte, June Morris, Gloria MacNeven, Mary Jane Joseph, Natalie Peterson, Ruth Burrows and Elva Lee Oranger.

At the same time Charles Gehringer and Barney McCoskey performed the ceremonies in the coronation of Betty Anderson, queen of the Flint snow train.

Panorama of Color

A vast panorama of color was the scene at the park which on the week-end coupled unexcelled scenic beauty with perfect winter sports weather. A glittering panoply of snow, clear sparkling ice, reflecting occasional shafts of sunlight, and dark pines standing like sentinels on the park's hills gave background to the brilliant coloring of the costumes.

Kick-Off Dinner Introduces Miss Grayling & Court

The 65th Annual Winter Sports Carnival Kick-Off Dinner will be held 6-11 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 1, at the Knights of Columbus Hall. The four-meat buffet dinner will cost $12.50 a person. There will be door prizes and entertainment by Free Wheelin' Fred.

The 1990 Miss Grayling and her court will be officially introduced to the public at the Kick-Off Dinner. Food will be provided by the Copper Kettle.

No, this isn't a toboggan rider who lost his sled. This is a winter carnival volunteer who was at the top of Hanson Hills and decided to slide down on his back rather than walk down. There are all kinds of things going on at the park this Sunday during the winter carnival

Quick exit — a polar bear plunger in 1988 got out fast (top) and headed for a warm building

From the old toboggan runs to the current day Polar Bear Plunge there have been plenty of changes at the Grayling Winter Sports Carnival. But the main theme of winter fun has remained the same.

Over the years some things have changed at Grayling State Bank, but not our commitment to you and customer service.

A ski patrol member checks out the people walking to the top of the hill to try the downhill canoe race at an earlier winter carnival.

Kids usually enjoy all of the winter carnival -- especially the downhill tube races

Both men and women have tried the Polar Bear Plunge the last two years

Be on time for the 11 a.m. Polar Bear Plunge Saturday, Feb. 3, because participants usually don't stay long in the water
